Alavanja is one of seven IU players to earn All-America honors on three occasions. He was a second team selection in both 1996 and 1997 and earned first team honors in 1998. He also also earned All-Big Ten and All-Region honors in each of those three seasons. Alavanja was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1995 and then earned the conference's Player of the Year award in both 1997 and 1998. He was a part of four Big Ten Championship teams and concluded his career with an NCAA Championship in 1998. That season, Alavanja scored 11 goals and 32 points as the Hoosiers posted a 23-2 mark. Indiana teams posted a 75-11-5 record during Alavanja's playing career.

Lazo Alavanja earned All-America honors for each of his final three seasons with the Hoosiers and helped IU to the 1998 national championship.

Betancourt was named Soccer America's Player of the Decade for the 1980s and earned All-America honors during all three of his seasons at IU. He opened the decade by winning the Hermann Trophy in 1981 and earned first team All-America honors for the second time in his career that same season. He ranks third on the school's all-time points scored list with 64 goals and 165 points, despite playing just three seasons before turning professional. Betancourt's first All-America season came in 1979 when he tallied 20 goals and 52 points as the Hoosiers posted a 19-2-2 mark and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals. The 1980 season saw Betancourt score 17 goals and 50 points, as he is one of just two players in IU history with three 50-plus point seasons. Betancourt was one of three Hoosiers named to Soccer America's All-Century team in 2000. Betancourt was elected to the IU Hall of Fame in 1992.

Totals	77	28	182

Burks still ranks second on Indiana's all-time points scored list with 77 goals and 182 points which he tallied from 1973-76. He held the honor of IU's greatest scorer for 14 seasons. He earned first team All-America honors in his final season as he scored 13 goals and 32 points leading the Hoosiers to their first-ever trip to the NCAA Championship game and an 18-1-1 mark. Burks led Indiana in scoring in three of his four seasons, as he is one of only two IU players to have three 20-plus goal seasons. His top scoring campaign came in 1975, when he scored 22 goals and 52 points. Burks owns the school mark for goals in a game, as he scored six goals against Indiana State in 1973, which resulted in a school-record 12 points. Burks also earned first-team All-Region honors during the 1976 season. Indiana was 57-9-2 during Burks' playing career.

1991	1	0	2
1992	2	1	5
1993	4	2	10
1994	4	2	10
Totals	11	5	27

Clark earned third team All-America honors in 1994, as he helped anchor a defense that allowed just 13 goals in 25 games. Clark also earned All-Region and All-Big Ten honors that same season. He was part of three Big Ten Championship teams and appeared in a pair of College Cups. His first trip to the College Cup came in 1991 as the Hoosiers posted a 21-3 mark. Clark and IU made a second trip in 1994 as the Hoosiers advanced all the way to the title game before closing out the season with a 23-3 record. Indiana posted a 75-15-5 record during Clark's career. Clark's top two offensive seasons came in 1993 and 1994 as he scored four goals and ten points in each season.

CHAD DEERING

1995	0.75	8.5	14-5-2
1996	0.78	7.5	14-3-3
Totals	0.65	38	66-14-6

Coufal is the only goalkeeper in Indiana history to earn NSCAA All-America honors, as he was named to the third team in 1996. Coufal concluded his career as the Hoosiers' all-time winningest goalkeeper with 66 victories. His career record was 66-14-6. Coufal's career goals against average of 0.65 ranks seventh on the Hoosiers' all-time list. He registered 38 career shutouts and 274 saves, statistics that rank second on their respective all-time lists. Coufal was an All-Region selection in 1995 and 1996 and an All-Big Ten choice in both 1994 and 1996. He led the Hoosiers to three Big Ten Championships and a trip to the NCAA finals in 1994 as he posted a 22-3 mark and 14 shutouts that season.

1976	20	5	45
1977	15	5	35
1978	19	7	45
Totals	54	17	125

DiBernardo became Indiana's first two-time soccer All-American as he earned first team honors both in 1977 and 1978 and became the Hoosiers' first Hermann Trophy award winner as he took home the award in his final season (1978). He was selected to Soccer America's All-Century team in 2000. DiBernardo played just three seasons for the Hoosiers before advancing to the professional ranks. In just three years, he scored 54 goals and 125 points, the fourth-highest point total in school history. The 1977 season saw DiBernardo score 15 goals and 35 points as the Hoosiers posted a 12-2-1 mark and earned a trip to the NCAA Regional Semifinals. DiBernardo led the team in scoring for the third consecutive season in 1978 when he tallied 19 goals and 45 points leading Indiana to the NCAA Championship game and a 23-2 mark. The Hoosiers posted a 53-5-2 mark during DiBernardo's career. He was elected to the IU Hall of Fame in 1991.

ANGELO DIBERNARDO

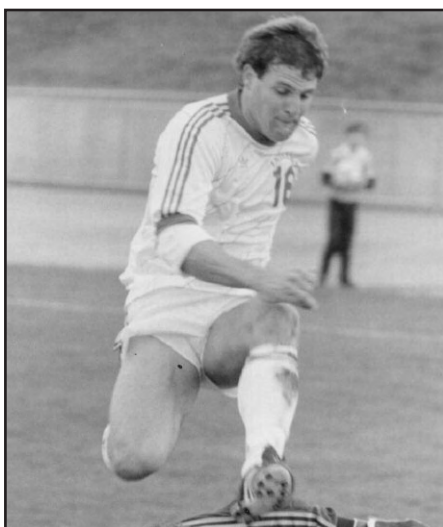

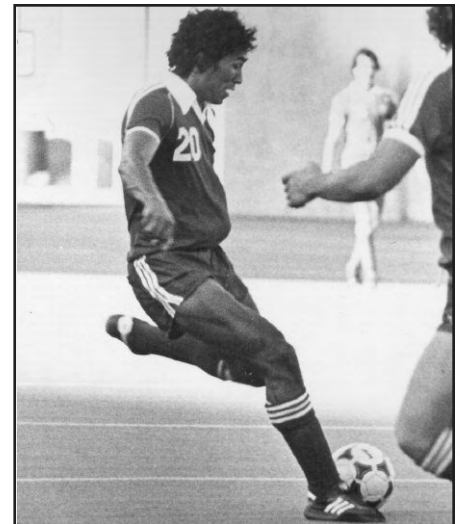

1991 IU HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

DiBernardo became Indiana's first two-time soccer All-American as he earned first team honors both in 1977 and 1978 and became the Hoosiers' first Hermann Trophy award winner as he took home the award in his final season (1978). He was selected to Soccer America's All-Century team in 2000. DiBernardo played just three seasons for the Hoosiers before playing in the professional ranks. In just three years, he scored 54 goals and 125 points, which ranks sixth on the IU all-time points scored list. DiBernardo, a two-time All-Region selection, is one of just two players in IU history to have scored five goals or more in a game. The Hoosiers posted a 53-5-2 mark during DiBernardo's career. DiBernardo was elected to the IU Hall of Fame in 1991.

ARMANDO BETANCOURT

1992 IU HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

Betancourt was named Soccer America's Player of the Decade for the 1980's and earned All-America honors during all three of his seasons at IU. He opened the decade by winning the Hermann Trophy Award in 1981 and earned first team All-America honors for the second time in his career that same season. He ranks third on the school's all-time points scored list with 64 goals and 165 points, despite playing just three seasons before turning professional. Betancourt was one of three Hoosiers named to Soccer America's All-Century team in 2000 and earned All-Region honors during all three of his seasons, in which IU posted a 61-8-3 record. Betancourt was elected to the IU Hall of Fame in 1992.

JOHN STOLLMAYER

1999 IU HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

Stollmeyer was a three-time All-American and a member of Soccer America's All-Decade team in the 1980's. His career at Indiana could not have begun any better as the Hoosiers won their first two NCAA crowns in his first two seasons at IU. He became just the second Hoosier to earn All-America honors three times in his career, as he was awarded third team accolades, garnering his third honor in 1985. He concluded his career with 27 goals and 93 points and Indiana posted a 76-15-8 during his four-year career. Stollmeyer was elected to the IU Hall of Fame in 1999.
